

Hand Brushing

How to hold client's hand while patterning and brushing

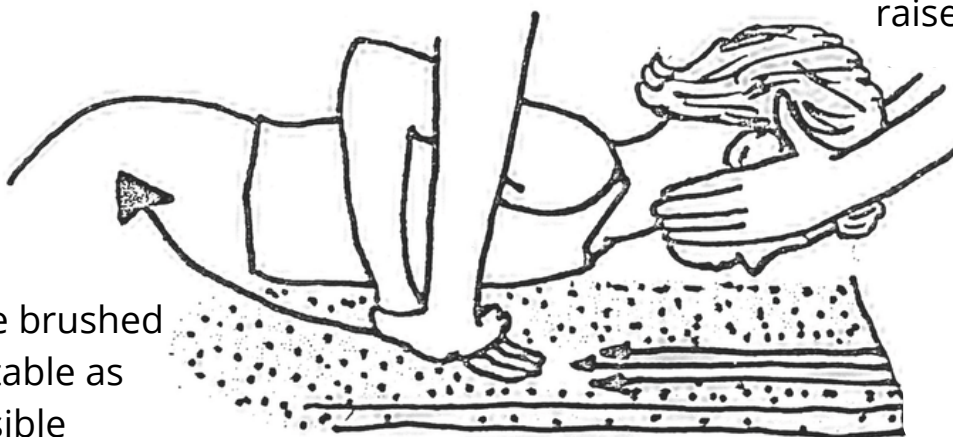

Remove rings

The client's head is held with thumbs to the back of the head, no pressure on ears

Client's fingers are lightly curled over table edge

As the head is turned, it is slightly raised, so nose and chin are not scraped

Fingers are brushed along the table as far as possible